Many veterans transition from the military with unique skills and experiences that lend themselves to starting sustainable small businesses. The Muster Across America Tour is a catalyzing event to stand up and strengthen this expanding network of military veterans, successful entrepreneurs, and the communities they serve.

Main Stage

Features expert talks and panel discussions with political, military and business leaders covering topics such as defense innovation trends, the investment and talent landscape, and veteran social impact.

Pitch Competition

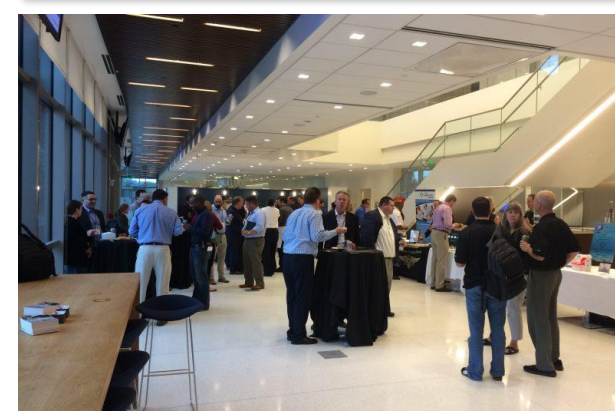

An opportunity for veteran entrepreneurs to compete for the local title of "top-performing veteran-led startup."

Mission Showcase

A space for local veteran-owned businesses to showcase their businesses and speak about their journey from the military to entrepreneurship.

Networking

Attendees will have a chance to connect throughout the day to discuss the day's content and build lasting and beneficial connections.
